Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

3. Claims 1,5-8,11-13,17-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Gomes et al. U.S. Patent # 6,615,209 (hereinafter Gomes).

As per claim 1, Gomes teaches a server for providing information to a client via a network comprising:

- a receiving module receiving, from said client, a providing request for the information, the providing request containing a piece of access site information on an access site through which, said client accesses said network (column 15 lines 45-61);

The reference teaches receiving from a client a query for the "muppet faq" (receiving from a client a request for information), the request containing "muppet faq" (piece of access site information) through which accesses the network.

- a URL management module extracting the piece of access site information from the providing request, retrieving URLs corresponding to the piece of access site information from a database, retrieving titles corresponding to the retrieved URLs from the database, and generating a document containing the retrieved URLs and the retrieved titles (column 16 lines 49-67)(column 17 lines 1-6);

- a transmitting module transmitting the generated document to said client, wherein said URL information is registered into the database in advance of the providing request by a user of said client (column 16 lines 5-25,49-67)(column 17 lines 1-6).

As per claim 5, Gomes teaches a server according to claim 1, wherein the information is a piece of information for indicating a location where the web page is stored (Fig. 15 element "www...." Urls).

In Fig. 15, underneath each document titles, it shows document description and underneath it shows the URL links, which is location where the webpage is stored.

As per claim 6, Gomes teaches a server according to claim 1, wherein the access site information is a source address of the providing request (column 17 lines 1-6)(Fig. 15 element "www...." Urls).

As per claim 7, Gomes teaches a server according to claim 1, wherein said database is stored with the files of the plurality of web pages each containing the same information expressed in different language (column 6 lines 57-67).

As per claim 8, Gomes teaches a method for a server to provide information to a client via a network comprising:

- registering in advance, in a database of the server, by a user of the client, the information that includes a URL information (column 5 lines 45-55, lines 61-67)(column 6 lines 1-9)(column 7 lines 2-13);

The reference storing in the search facility server the information by the client including the URL links for the documents.

- receiving a request, from said client, for providing the in advance registered information, the providing request containing a piece of access site information on an access site through which said client accesses said network (column 15 lines 45-61);

The reference teaches receiving from a client a query for the "muppet faq" (receiving from a client a request for information), the request containing "muppet faq" (piece of access site information) through which accesses the network.

- extracting the piece of access site information from the providing request, retrieving the URLs corresponding to the piece of access site information from the database, retrieving titles from the database corresponding to the retrieved URLs, and generating a document containing the retrieved URLs and generating a document containing the retrieved URLs and the retrieved titles (column 16 lines 49-67)(column 17 lines 1-6)(Fig. 15); and

-transmitting the generated document to said client (column 16 lines 49-67)(column 17 lines 1-6) (Fig. 15).

As per claim 11, Gomes teaches a method according to claim 8, wherein said extracting involves retrieving URLs corresponding to the piece of access site information from the database, the database storing files of a plurality of web pages with their display contents different from each other (column 16 lines 5-25).

As per claim 12, Araki teaches a system comprising:

-a client (column 15 lines 45-47); and

-a server for providing information to said client via a network (column 5 lines 43-50),
